What do you love?

As we enter the second month of the year, we encourage you to take some time to reflect on the importance of love in our lives and the beautiful examples we see of it in spiritual and biblical contexts, the world around us, and even in ourselves.

We think there are quite a few things to love about Menucha. Take a look at what the Menucha Committee loves!

"The annual hymn sing and folk dancing, and of course the freshly baked bread and homemade jam."

- Zoë

"That the 'young people' organize our activities ourselves, and how easily new people are welcomed into the group."

- Nate

"The reflection of God's creation, from the morning air to the glorious sunsets. And the loved ones to share it with!"

- Mary Ellen

"Singing in choir, the meditation sessions, chatting on the back porch with a variety of people, and the beautiful grounds."

- Sean

"The tradition of sitting with a different group of people each meal. For those of us who are not naturally outgoing, it gives us a gentle push to break bread and get to know every person there."

- Stephen

"The sense of history that Wright Hall exudes with all the beautiful woodwork. Also the family atmosphere and tradition of the annual family week together."

- Rachel
